

2007 SEMINAR PRESENTATIONS

April 17, 2007

Christopher J. Hoyle and Douglas H. Davis of TECO

Topic: “How to Pick a Winner Without Riding it First”: the decisions that need to be made and the possible choices for the most appropriate system, with emphasis on energy use, capital costs and campaign life.

Phil Ross of Glass Industry Consulting International

Topic: Fundamentals of Air Emissions and their Control from Glass Melting Furnaces.

April 18, 2007

Title	Presented by
“Hot Repairs – Where, When, and How”	Dave Boothe All States Refractory
“All You Wanted to Know About Shapes and Were Afraid to Ask”	Luke Evans & Gordon Hughes, Special Shapes
“HY-Fine: Improved Glass Refining and Foam Control Through Bubbling with Hydrogen and Oxygen”	Dick Marshall, Linde Gas
“Cloud Chamber Scrubber (CCS): New Glass Projects and Approaches Since Hotbels 2006”	Kevin D. Moss, Tri-Mer

“Glass Defect Analyses and Potential Identification”

Glenn Neff, Glass Service
USA

“Novel Use of Burners in a Tin Bath and the Oxy Forehearth”

Neil Simpson, Eclipse

“Update on Glass Furnace Draining with Emphasis on Recycling the Hot Water”

George Kopser, Hotwork

“New Hot Repair Techniques”

Dennis Cawthorn, Fosbel

Note: Presentations not necessarily given in order listed.